

MICROSOFT EXCEL ASSIGNMENT- 3

Lookup Functions & Index & Matching

DATASET

Theoretical Questions (Answer in 2-3 lines each)

1. What is VLOOKUP in Excel and when is it used?
2. What does "Exact match" mean in lookup functions?
3. What is an appropriate match (approximate match) in Excel lookups?
4. Can VLOOKUP search to the right of the lookup column?
5. How does VLOOKUP handle multiple matching values?
6. How can VLOOKUP perform a partial match in Excel?
7. How to perform lookups with multiple criteria?
8. What does the #N/A error indicate in lookups?
9. How can you perform lookups across multiple tables?
10. What is HLOOKUP in Excel?
11. What is XLOOKUP in Excel?
12. What are INDEX and MATCH used for in Excel?
13. What is a two-way lookup?
14. What is a two-column lookup?
15. How to find the closest match to a value in Excel?
16. What is the CHOOSE function in Excel?
17. What are Excel Tables and their 'magic' features?

Practical Questions (Perform using the attached dataset)

1. Find the salary of the employee with employee_id 7754 using VLOOKUP.
2. Use VLOOKUP to find the bonus of employee_id 5124 with an exact match.
3. Find the salary of the employee whose ID is closest to 6000 using approximate match.
4. Retrieve the job_title for employee_id 7297 using VLOOKUP.
5. Find the manager_id of the first employee with job_title "General Manager".
6. Find the email of the employee whose last_name starts with "Pad".
7. Case-sensitively find the salary for first_name "Northrop".
8. Find the bonus for the employee with first_name "Vito" and gender "Male".
9. Demonstrate VLOOKUP returning #N/A for employee_id 99999.
10. Find the salary from Table1 or Table2 using IFERROR.
11. Retrieve the job_title from a horizontal table where employee_id is in the top row.
12. Find the bonus for employee_id 2249 using XLOOKUP.
13. Find the salary for employee_id 5124 using INDEX+MATCH.
14. Find the bonus where employee_id = 7297 and column header = "bonus (rupees)".
15. Find the salary for the combination first_name = "Vito" and last_name = "Bullard".
16. Find the salary for employee_id closest to 6001.
17. Use a table name "EmpTable" to return the salary for employee_id 7754.